My dear Maharaj Kumar,

Your letter of the 22nd August duly reached me. I regret the delay in answering it due to many re-occupations during the last month. I was extremely sorry to hear of your troubles. I am not sure whether I can be of much assistance to you, much as I should like to, but I will do my best. It is difficult to offer advice in a matter like this, but I would ask you to have patience and not let His Highness get an impression that you want to cause him any worry or annoyance. On the contrary make him feel that you want to be perfectly loyal and obedient to him.

I hope you are quite well and happy otherwise.

Believe me
Yours very sincerely,
Sd/ Krishnaraja Wadiyar.
